C&EN, the most trusted source for objective science news, is announcing a new library-centric edition.

For more than 90 years, C&EN has been one of the most trusted sources for authoritative science news written by experts. We are making it even better by creating a special edition for library and organizational subscribers, called C&EN Global Enterprise, that places science news right alongside the journal articles that your readers already access.

New library benefits provided in this edition:

- Quickly find information across all ACS content including news, ebooks, and journals with one easy search
- Leverage ACS2Go to provide off-campus access without a proxy service or VPN
- Easy access to COUNTER statistics
- Post-cancellation access is now available to academic libraries
- Feel confident in your digital preservation with Portico

Taking advantage of C&EN Global Enterprise is easy!

CELEBRATING 50 YEARS OF SCHOLARSHIP!

Canadian Journal of History and the Journal of Canadian Studies launch complete online archives!

Journal of Canadian Studies

publishes the best in scholarship about Canadian history, culture and society. For five decades JCS has been deeply committed to interdisciplinary perspectives, bilingual presentation of research, and the serious study of Canada.

Visit the online archive at:
<http://bit.ly/JCSREOnline>

Canadian Journal of History

speaks to all professional historians, as well as to anyone interested in historical scholarship, it features articles and reviews by experts, and invites contributions from all areas of history. The journal has resisted the trend toward increased specialization and offers an excellent way to keep up with developments across the discipline.

Visit the online archive at:
<http://bit.ly/CJHACHOnline>

Available exclusively through UTP Journals Online, CJH and JCS's online collections are fully searchable electronic resources collectively containing over 9,000 articles, reviews, and commentaries with content dating back to each journal's first issue published 50 years ago. The archives support many standards that researchers and librarians expect in a research tool, including ORCID, CrossRef, CrossCheck, JATS DTD, Shibboleth, COUNTER, and MARC. Additional features include Tables of Contents alerts, social media integration, as well as most read and most cited featured articles.
